RHINELAND REPUBLIC LOSING GROUND

FORCE OF DRIVE ALREADY SPENT CLAIMS BERLIN

Separatists Driven from Many Towns Taken at Start of Movement; Reaction Under Way in Other Cities

FIGHTING MARKS RECOVERY OF AIX BY LOYALIST PARTY

Situation Still Confused But Indications are Separatists are Losing

LONDON.—The German palatinate has been declared an autonomous state, says a Central News dispatch from Berlin. According to a proclamation the Palatinate binds itself to help secure the safety of France and agrees to assume its share of the German reparations.

LONDON.—Reports received in Berlin indicate the Rhineland republicans are losing ground, says a dispatch to the Central News. They have been ejected from Coblenz, the Rhine-land states, nine persons being killed. The republicans have been driven from Emsdorf and Crefeld, the dispatch adds.

Movement Losing Force

DUESSELDORF.—By The Associated Press.—The Rhineland republic movement has spent its first force, according to reports received over the crippled wire systems, but the situation is still confused. The republicans took a few additional villages and towns yesterday and last night, but cleared out of Coblenz, their capital, and Marenco, and reaction is apparent in a number of the towns they still hold.

Driven from Aix

AIX LA CHAPELLE.—By The Associated Press.—Half a dozen persons were killed and scores wounded as the separatists regained possession of Aix la Chapelle.

The movement to oust the separatists from the government building, which began to form Monday night had gained strength by Tuesday morning and before noon some of the separatists who had been in the structure were attacked by the crowd.

The comrades in the building came to the rescue, seized motor trucks and drove through the streets, firing right and left into the throng.

The situation became so much for the local police and Belgian troops arrived on the scene, clearing the streets and driving the separatists back to their last remaining stronghold.

After a sequence of order had been restored, Police Commissioner Wilhelm Buhr went to the government building, in which only forty separatists, commanded by Leo Deck, were found, and gave the in-

COMMITTS SUICIDE RATHER THAN TO BE DISHONORED

Susie Browne, Former La Crosse High School Student Dies in Chicago

TRIED TO OBTAIN PLACE IN SEVERAL BIG CABARETS

Beautiful Young Woman Values Self Respect More than Life

Because she would not meet the conditions of employment laid out by proprietors of large cabarets in Chicago, "Susie" Browne, gifted of voice and beautiful, could find no field there for the vocation she loved best. That's why the former La Crosse girl ended everything by swallowing lye in her room last Saturday night.

The body of Mrs. Browne, former wife of a Madison man was taken to Madison from Chicago by her mother, Mrs. Anna Sholtz, and taken to the Schroeder undertaking parlors, where funeral services were conducted by the Rev. A. J. Soldan of Luther Memorial church Wednesday afternoon.

Had Been Working

Notified of her daughter's death Sunday morning while in the midst of preparations to leave for California to make her home with a brother, Mrs. Sholtz went to Chicago immediately and was present at the inquest Monday, after which, with the assistance of Chicago friends, she made a complete investigation of conditions which led to her daughter's tragedy.

"In her room I found clothes—bundles of aprons and other garments—she showed she had been working," said Mrs. Sholtz. "My inquiries showed that she tried to get work at many of the big cabarets and established beyond doubt the reason why she was refused employment."

Mrs. Browne was 21 years old. Entering life as Susan Thornburg, she was the daughter of Mrs. Sholtz by her first marriage and was born in Newcastle, Colo. At the age of 16 months she came to Wisconsin with her mother and for some years lived at Sparta. When her mother was married to the late John A. Sholtz, former conservation warden, Susan went with them to Madison.

She attended school at Sparta, Randall school at Madison, and also La Crosse high school, where she was a member of the school glee club. She also studied music at Wheeler school in Madison, preceding her marriage to R. A. Browne, son of Frank Browne of Madison.

She is survived by her mother, two aunts, Mrs. J. N. Ziegler, La Crosse, Mrs. G. A. Paulmann, Madison, and four uncles, L. Jacobs, Los Angeles, Jacobus, Sparta, C. Jacobs, Leon, Wis., and John J. Jacobs, Meeker, Colo.

BAR CHRISTMAS TREES FROM NEW ENGLAND

BOSTON, Mass.—Christmas tree shippers here were notified Wednesday that the Michigan department of agriculture had placed a quarantine on the importation of evergreen trees from New England, effective October 31, because of the danger of a spread of the gypsy and brown tail moths. Several other states have taken similar action.

FARMER KILLED BY BLAST

LADYSMITH, Wis.—The funeral of Joseph Votruba, farmer, whose home was five miles southwest of this city, was held from the Catholic church here Tuesday. Mr. Votruba's death was the result of a tragic accident. He was working alone, blasting stumps with dynamite. When he did not appear for the evening meal his wife sought him and found him terribly mangled by an explosion, but still alive. He lived several hours but did not regain consciousness.

HUNT PAYROLL BANDITS

BELLEVIEW, Ill.—Police are searching for six bandits who held up and robbed Walter Ambs, paymaster, and M. O. Canaway, guard, of the Southern Coal, Coke & Mining company, of a payroll of about $12,500 here Tuesday. The money was intended to pay the semi-monthly wages of about 200 miners at a local mine and was insured, according to officials of the company.

Attach Significance to Visit of German Ex-Crown Prince to Exiled Kaiser at Doorn Castle

DOORN, Holland.—By The Associated Press.—The visit which former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm of Prussia is now making at Doorn castle is regarded as having considerable significance. According to information from several reliable sources and from persons close to the former Kaiser, the presence of the prince in Doorn is connected with the return of Princess Hermine from the Reich, whence she brought very important news concerning the activities of the nationalist military party and the chances of the eventual return of William Hohenzollern to the throne.

It is stated that Hermine herself is displaying great activity and that all her keen intelligence is directed toward the object and hope of becoming empress. Moreover, quite recently an officer of high rank from Dresden and a political personage from Munich have been guests of the former emperor, who since this visit has shown great nervousness.

A detail regarded as curious is the fact that a Doorn furniture dealer has been commissioned to sell a large quantity of the rich tapestries and curtains belonging to the exile, and also a large part of his wardrobe. The Dutch government and authorities are closely watching the movements of the ex-kaiser and his son and the police force guarding them has been doubled.

MERCHANTS PLAN BIG SALES EVENTS FOR THIS WINTER

Christmas Opening and Shop Early Campaign Plans are Launched

NO CARNIVAL THIS WINTER IS THE DECISION REACHED

Bureau Endorses Elks' Bazaar to Raise Bath House Fund

Plans for a Dollar Day, Suburban Day, Christmas opening and shop early campaign were outlined at a meeting of the merchants' bureau following a dinner at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday night. The meeting was the largest in point of attendance and one of the most important in the history of the bureau. Over 100 retailers, representing every branch of trade, were present.

The bureau decided last night not to attempt to put on a carnival this winter, after discussing the question for some time.

Mr. Krause explained the plans for the Christmas opening and arrival of Santa Claus and also for the shop early campaign.

M. Rosenstein, Mayor J. J. Verchota and W. B. Fraser told of elaborate arrangements made for the Elks bazaar to raise a fund for a new public bath, and the bureau endorsed the project.

A resolution was adopted asking the common council to buy a street cleaning machine. The council will also be asked to have the traffic ordinances enforced in the downtown district.

The bureau decided to have monthly meetings during the winter and spring, and the next dinner will be on November 12.

The Normal school quartet sang several numbers in fine style.

FRITZ JURY RETURNS VERDICT OF GUILTY

Sharon Farmer Expected to be Given Life Sentence in State's Prison

ELKHORN, Wis.—Adolph Bekman, 54, Sharon farmer, was found guilty of first degree murder for the shooting to death of Carl Fritz, Rock county farmer, by a Walworth county circuit court jury at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday after three hours' deliberation, and the verdict was received later by Judge E. B. Helden, Racine. Three women and three men composed the jury.

Motion for a new trial was made by counsel for the defense, Attorney M. O. Montant, Janesville, and Charles J. Sumner, Delavan. The court will hear their arguments promptly but sentenced to life imprisonment. The verdict came at the conclusion of an eight day trial, with the state prosecution in charge of District Attorney Alfred Godfrey, and Jay W. Torney, Elkhorn. Carl Fritz was shot to death at the Bekman farm July 15, 1923 by Bekman, who advanced a defense of justifiable and excusable homicide, claiming the shooting followed a quarrel over a gun, according to the defense.

KLAN POLICY ON IMMIGRATION SET FORTH BY CHIEF

Imperial Wizard Evans Outlines K. K. K. Attitude Toward Negro, Jew and Catholic

RECOMMENDS U. S. SELECT THE IMMIGRANTS IT WANTS TO COME

Urges Stopping of Immigration While New Policy is Formulated

DALLAS, Tex.—The Ku Klux Klan's attitude against negroes, Jews and Catholics was explained Wednesday by Dr. H. W. Evans, imperial wizard, in a speech which was announced as outlining fully for the first time the policies of the Ku Klux Klan regarding restriction of immigration and its program in this respect.

Dr. Evans recommended that the United States revise its policy so as to make its own selection of the class of immigrants wanted and then to invite them, while excluding all not invited. Mr. Evans said:

"The streams of population that have been and are pouring in upon us are ages old in racial character and capacity. We are the melting pot. Into it has been poured, almost promiscuously, perhaps in recent years designated, every drop of ingenuity of citizenship that the earth produces, the good and the bad."

Need New Immigrant Law

"Out of it must come in the end, our success or failure as a republic. The immigrant stream is monthly more and more inferior, as I shall show by indisputable facts. Within the year congress will enact a new immigration law."

"The present population is much less than half, perhaps little more than a third of native Anglo-Saxon stock. We have in this country to-day a heterogeneous, almost unbelievable number of 4,331,905 and mentally and physically diseased persons totaling more than 5,000,000. It is undeniable that we have not more than thirty-five million one hundred per cent. Americans—men, women and children—perhaps thirty million would be the limit."

"The problem of assimilation cannot be measured by the fifty-eight millions of native whites as against the forty-seven millions of alien and colored stock. The south is almost untouched by immigration. It is the east, the north and west that have received the inundation. For practically every white American in the east, north and west, there is a corresponding person born abroad, or whose parents, one or both were born abroad."

Three Needs of Citizens

"There are certain vital requirements to be met for our citizenship. These are:

1. Education.
2. Health.
3. Home building.

"We already have at least three powerful and numerous elements that do now and forever will, deny every fundamental requirement of assimilation."

"First, there is the negro—ten and a half millions. They have not, they cannot, attain the Anglo-Saxon level, as is the Jew. To him, patriotism is an absolute, unbreakable element. To the Jew, patriotism is impossible. Already a fifth of the Jewish race is in this country. I would prefer to believe that all this unceasing persecution has been unmerited, but whether or not the Jew himself is largely to blame, its indelible impress is there. They are people apart from all other peoples. They always will be. As a race the Jews are law-abiding. They are of physically wholesome stock. They are mentally alert. But their homes are not American, but Jewish homes, into which they will never go and from which they will never emerge for a real intermingling with America."

Recognize Higher Authority

"No nation can long endure that permits a higher temporal allegiance than to its own government. The hierarchies of Roman and Greek Catholicism violate that principle. To them the presidency at Washington is subordinate to the priesthood at Rome. The parochial school alone is sufficient proof of a divided allegiance, a separatist instinct. They demand that our future citizens be trained, not in public schools, but under the control and influence of a priesthood that teaches supreme loyalty to a religious oligarchy that is not even of American domicile."

"Do you realize that the illiteracy of Europe is practically confined to Catholic countries? In Italy 37 per cent of the population over ten years of age are without education. Spain has 58.7 per cent of illiterates; Portugal 68.9 per cent. Greek illiteracy is 60 per cent."

GOVERNOR

Lieut. Gov. Martin Edward Trapp is Executive in Oklahoma, Pending Trial of Governor J. C. Walton, Suspended Tuesday.

CHARGES THAT KLAN PAID FOR SESSION HALTED BY WALTON

Bitter Fight Precipitated in Oklahoma House Over Resolution for Probe

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—By The Associated Press.—The bitterest fight precipitated since the convening of the special session of the Oklahoma legislature, broke in the house Wednesday when Representative J. W. Callahan, democrat, Latimer county, introduced a resolution providing for an investigation to determine who paid the expenses of house members when they attempted to convene September 26 and were dispersed by military authorities upon orders from Governor J. C. Walton. Callahan is a Walton supporter.

The resolution was adopted after a brief but acrimonious debate and was referred to a committee investigating conduct of house members.

Claim Klan is Involved

The resolution sought especially an inquiry to determine whether the Ku Klux Klan or "certain interests" in Tulsa had contributed funds for the attempted session.

Representative J. R. Phillips, democrat, Cleveland county, assailed Callahan for his reflection on the house members who sought to answer the call for the session that was blocked by the governor. He demanded an immediate investigation of the Latimer county charge, and declared that if it is proved untrue, he would move Callahan's suspension from the house.

Callahan rejoined that he had the proof and dared the house to let him produce his testimony.

OSHKOSH DEFEATS WHITEWATER, 25-6; KEEPS IN RUNNING

Stevens Point is Foe of Oshkosh School Next Saturday

OSHKOSH, Wis.—In a hard fought game of regular college caliber, Oshkosh Normal school defeated Whitewater Normal here Tuesday by a score of 25 to 6, thereby remaining in the state championship conference race. There were a number of minor casualties and one that for a time appeared serious. Max Feinberg, Whitewater quarterback, was tackled so hard that he was rendered unconscious and was taken to a local hospital. He was in a state of coma for several hours. This morning, however, he was sufficiently recovered to return to his home at Whitewater. Gahan, left end for Oshkosh, had a knee injured. Several others sustained minor bruises. Two place-kicks by Carl Schweers and two touchdowns by the same Shawano husky, with a pass from Jerdee to Jensen for another touchdown, made up the Oshkosh total. Whitewater made its lone touchdown in the third quarter on a tumble. Powerful defensive work featured both teams and to penetrate either line was not easy. Passes brought the most yardage. Oshkosh Normal goes to Stevens Point Saturday for another conference event.

TROOPS ROUT BANDITS

PEKING.—By Associated Press.—Troops routed several hundred bandits who attempted Wednesday to capture a passenger train in the Pekin-Hankow railway as it was passing through the northern part of Honan province north bound. The locomotive was struck by bullets but passengers were injured. Traffic has been suspended temporarily.

SENATE BACKS HOUSE ACTION BY 36-1 VOTE

Three Charges Against Governor Submitted by House and Resolution of Removal Follows

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR TRAPP TO TAKE OVER THE OFFICE

House Considers Other Charges While Senate Prepares for Trial

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—By The Associated Press.—An effort to file two executive orders with the secretary of state was made Wednesday by a clerk from the office of Governor J. C. Walton. Miss Una Roberts, assistant secretary of state, refused to accept the papers in view of the resolution adopted by the state senate suspending the governor from office. Observers believed the incident may be made the basis for court action to test the legality of the executive's suspension.

A third formal charge was added to the impeachment bill against Governor J. C. Walton, when the house voted 87 to 16, to approve article four of its impeachment committee's report accusing the governor of using his official authority for his personal financial gain.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla.—By The Associated Press.—Gov. J. C. Walton was suspended from office at 6:40 p. m. Tuesday when the state senate by a vote of 36 to 1 adopted a resolution temporarily relieving him of his official duties, following the submission by the lower house of a bill of impeachment against him.

Governor Walton declined to comment, but is believed to be girding for a final fight to resist the charges upon which he has been impeached and suspended from office.

The probability loomed that court action would be resorted to by one side or the other—possibly both—before the proceedings are completed.

Governor Walton expected to appear at his office as usual today, but whether he would do so, the resolution suspending him from his official duties was problematical. He refused to answer a direct question as to what he considers his official status now to be, although he intimated that he does not recognize the senate resolution as mandatory.

Lieutenant-Governor Acts

Equally as reticent was Lieut.-Gov. M. E. Trapp, who was designated by the senate measure to assume the governor's duties during the period of suspension and who, under the law, will become acting governor of the state in the event of Governor Walton's conviction. His only statement was that he would follow the law in the case.

Lieutenant Governor Trapp declared that he would seek an opinion from George Short, state attorney general, as to the legality of the senate resolution designating him acting governor during the trial of the chief executive. He declared he will be guided by the attorney general's findings, and that if he is informed he is the legally empowered acting governor he will perform the normal routine duties of the executive's office.

Two separate bills of impeachment were filed with the senate late yesterday by the lower house, acting on evidence submitted by its committee which investigated the executive's official conduct. The first charged that the governor had received state funds to his own use by entering his private chauffeur on the state health department payrolls. The other alleged he committed a constitutional offense by refusing to permit a grand jury to meet after it had been summoned to review his official acts.

Charge Corruption

All of the charges come under the general allegations of moral turpitude, incompetency, corruption in office, and wilful neglect of duty. The house, upon convening today, took up the reading of the formal report and evidence of its committee of investigation and impeachment. It was decided to temporarily pass by the first impeachment charge—that of the appointment of Charles H. Buskin as district judge while a member of the judiciary.

ROOSEVELT HOUSE FILLED WITH RELICS OF COLONEL'S LIFE

Birthplace of Former President
Restored and Will be Dedicated October 27

NEW YORK.—A huge stuffed lion, bagged in one of his hunting expeditions, a frying pan, a cartoon by Tom Nast, are only three diversified articles of the hundreds of manuscripts, pictures and mementoes of all sorts which have gravitated to Roosevelt House, the restored birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt at No. 28 East 20th Street, Manhattan. The house is to be dedicated October 27.

A set of scrapbooks giving the career of Mr. Roosevelt, as told from day to day in the press, is one of the notable additions to be received by the Roosevelt Association during the last year. This set of books was started by the President's father, continued by himself, and concluded by members of his family. In it are some passages in Roosevelt's own handwriting as well as a number of letters he wrote while at Harvard.

Supplementing the original cartoon of Theodore Roosevelt, drawn by Tom Nast for Harper's Weekly in 1882 and later presented by the famous exposé of the "Trust Ring" to the President, are many other cartoons from foreign and American pens graphically recording Roosevelt's colorful career.

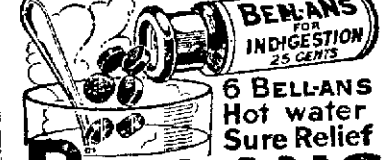

Dwight Franklin's miniature plastic group of Roosevelt, his son Kermit the gun bearers hunting in South Africa is a unique addition to the collection. The figures in this group are six inches high and have been colored and set in a miniature stage. The group is strikingly realistic.

The cradle in which one of the outstanding figures of history was rocked, and his last public message also have been incorporated in the collection. Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., wife of the present Assistant Secretary of the Navy, presented the cradle. The message, a letter to Richard M. Hurd, was donated by its recipient.

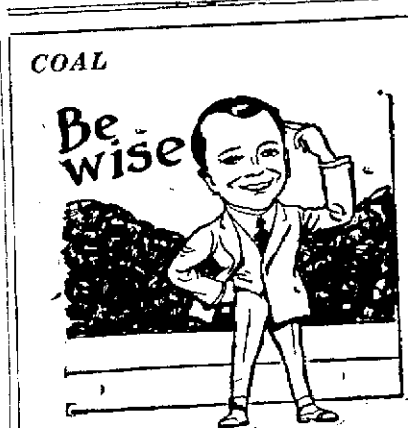

Six hundred bound volumes of back numbers of the New York Herald, Times and World covering an important stage of Mr. Roosevelt's life, were presented by Frank A. Monsey, publisher of the Herald. A costly riding outfit, the gift of the Brazilian government at the time of the Colonel's River of Doubt expedition is there.

OVER FOUR HUNDRED MILES OF CONCRETE ROAD LAID IN 1923

Cost to State Estimated to be Thirty Thousand Dollars a Mile

STATE CEMENT PLANT SOON TO BE READY FOR OPERATION

Will Solve State's Problem of Securing Cement, it is Hoped

MADISON, Wis.—The question of obtaining an adequate supply of cement for state highway construction which has brought worry to state officials for years is expected to be at least partially solved by the production of the state's first cement plant at Manitowish, which will be in operation soon with an initial expected production of a million barrels for the first year.

Transportation is one of the big costs in obtaining cement and during the season just closing the state paid $1.75 a barrel for cement of which cost about 60 cents was for transportation.

With most of the paving projects in Wisconsin ending November 1, the state will have laid about 420 miles of concrete pavement this year according to a report of the state highway commission.

Cement costs the state a trifle more this year than it did last year. It cost the state $20,000 a mile to build concrete roads but this cost was in excess of all the expense involved.

Tests are being made by the state highway commission of the durability of different kinds of roads that have been laid. For this purpose cylinder-shaped sections of roads are drilled out and taken for testing to determine which can bear the most weight.

The highway department reports that the state had no trouble in obtaining sufficient cement during the year in comparison with the difficulty of obtaining a sufficient quantity in years past.

There was a strong movement in the legislature to have the state go into the cement manufacturing business but a bill to accomplish this was defeated. One of the arguments advanced against the state owned plant was that private interests were planning the erection of the cement works now being built at Manitowish.

Although Wisconsin is said by geologists to possess all material needed for the manufacture of cement, the new plant will ship material across the lake from Michigan.

SPORTSMEN HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR FOREST FIRE LOSS

MADISON, Wis.—Extensive damage to forests across practically the entire northern part of Wisconsin as well as in Minnesota and Michigan was done by forest fires recently, according to reports reaching State Conservation Commissioner Elmer S. Hall.

The chief result of the first, Commissioner Hall said, is destruction or serious damage to forests that have been developing for twenty years or more. It will take equally as long for such trees to be replaced, he said.

The conservation commissioner attributes much of the causation of the fires to sportsmen. He said he does not anticipate further difficulty with fires during the present season.

IOWA CITY, Ia.—There will be no parties of any kind sponsored by university organizations with the exception of fraternities at the University of Iowa this year, "unless sufficient assurance is given that the respective affairs will be properly conducted," R. Parties last year were "entirely unsatisfactory," he declared.

The dean's ultimatum was directed at the annual Freshman party, the Sophomore cotillion, the Junior prom, and the Senior hop. Fan-fancie parties also fall under the ban.

INCREASE GASOLINE PRICES IN DETROIT

DETROIT, Mich.—Gasoline prices that dropped two cents to 12.8 cents a gallon last week have rebounded to 16.8, it was learned Tuesday when the Central Oil company announced a four-cent increase effective immediately.

Other companies refused to say if they planned immediate gasoline price increases.

FEDERATION OF CLUB CLUBS WANTS HIGHER CULTURAL STANDARDS

Inaugurates Four-year Course in Understanding and Appreciation of Music

PEORIA, Ill.—Promoting higher cultural standards in music, following the organization's decision to inaugurate a four-year course of study on the understanding and appreciation of music, the National Federation of Music Clubs, through its more than 3,000 chapters in the United States, has taken another step in the right direction, according to Helen Harrison Mills, national chairman of public city headquarters here.

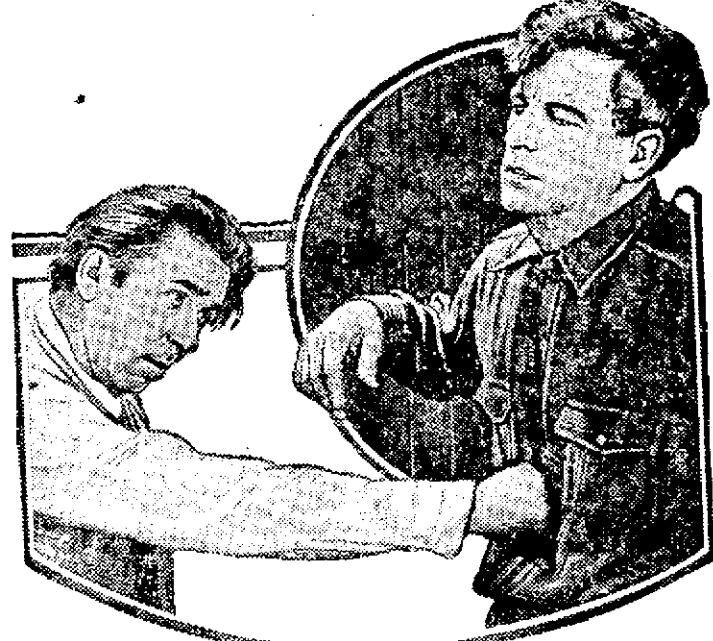

An outline of the course is being prepared for distribution by Mrs. Frank A. Stierling of Akron, Ohio, chairman of the department, the announcement said, and will be designed especially for adoption by church societies or the large clubs mainly interested in presenting education of evening recitals. Special honors will be given clubs completing two years of the course at the Peoria Convention, to be held in 1925, and finishing the entire four-year course at 1927 biennial.

Equal emphasis in the organization work is to be placed upon the plan to give the American musical artist the same footing with foreign artists on the concert programs sponsored by the music clubs. The federation at its last convention resolved to engage at least fifty per cent American artists in the future.

Another field of musical endeavor was opened in the decision to institute a department of music in industry, with Miss Ruth Anderson, St. Paul, head of the Bureau of Industrial Music, in charge.

Instructions to each of the units urging them to combine their efforts to obtain legislation looking toward the establishment of a National Conservatory of Music, have been issued, according to the announcement, and also that the federation's committee on legislation continue to seek the active co-operation of all other national associations toward this end.

Steps already have been taken to have a simplified bill introduced in congress to provide for the appointment of a commission of 21 persons representing all classes and phases of music in order that when the Conservatory is organized it will be broadly democratic.

Under the circumstances, the police stations were not to be taken into account to evacuate the premises.

Henry Ruhr later offered the besieged clubs more chance to surrender peacefully within fifteen minutes, promising that trucks would be furnished to take the separatists away.

The commissioner said he would personally accompany them and guarantee protection from the mob.

Ask Help of Allies

"Send us a truck and two Belgian soldiers and we'll go," called down one of the men. However, after a hurried consultation between the French, Belgian and British officials, the Belgians decided not to interfere. A few moments later a separatist leader from the window and speaking in French shouted: "We are looking to France and Belgium to help us out of this situation."

The time had now expired and everyone was shouting tensely. Finally a voice hailed from the window: "No negotiations!"

Within the next few minutes a truck load of blue police arrived and put a ladder up to the window. The officers were beginning to ascend when Herr Ruhr called upon them to halt. After a short conversation among the allied officers it was decided not to allow the police to storm the building as this would only involve more bloodshed.

Besieged Garrison Sticks

Thus the situation remained at sunset. Soon after 8 p.m. the besieged separatists received word that the republicans had spread to Coblenz. The spirits of the besieged rose considerably and they sent word to the German officials that if the latter wanted the building they would have to come and get it by force. Then Decker and his company looked up for the night.

During the negotiations between the German officials and Decker, republicans and loyalists became almost chummy and the republicans were permitted to pose outside for photographs.

Decker appeared at the front door with Pauline Emily Walters also a separatist. These two, with twenty-eight men posed for the movies for a quarter of an hour.

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.

A Rhineland Republic has been proclaimed at Coblenz and a provisional government has been appointed, but as a separatist French newspaper puts it, republicans seem lacking in vigor.

The situation of the separatists Wednesday morning is not brilliant. They made no headway Tuesday; rather the reverse. They appear definitely to have lost Aix la Chapelle and also their hold on other places as the separatist press reacts from the first surprise of the coup and realize that the French and Belgian authorities are perfectly sincere in their neutrality and have no intention of interfering except to stop bloodshed.

The separatists are actively opposed by the communists and the labor interests. Thus, at Wiesbaden the employees of the street car and gas works went on strike.

Decker Predicts Success

The correspondent of Le Matin at Aix la Chapelle quotes Leo Decker, leader of the movement that resulted in the capture of that city on Sunday, as saying: "I believe that in eight days everything will have ended in our favor. The struggle is hard, but revolution is not effected in a day. We have been successful in places where we expected stubborn resistance."

"Duisburg is in our hands. The Bonn, citadel of Prussian militarism, is also ours. Crefeld is surrounded and Coblenz (yesterday) afternoon proclaimed the Rhineland republic."

Repulsed at Bonn

BONN.—The first assault of the Rhineland separatists on the town hall here was repulsed by the use of hose pipes, and three of the attackers, after with revolvers, were arrested.

Two hours later the French occupied the building on the pretext that a shot had been fired from within. A staff of municipal employees was ordered to assemble in one room where everyone was searched for firearms, thus affording the separatists an opportunity for occupying the structure, which they did. A republic was immediately proclaimed and the magistrates and officials then departed.

WIESBADEN.—Several hundred separatists occupied the town hall here Wednesday morning, also seizing several other government buildings.

Attacks on the police stations were repulsed.

The police disarmed street demonstrators and then cleared thoroughfares. There was some firing, ten persons being wounded. The French have undertaken patrol duty.

Fail to Take Crefeld

PARIS.—Heavy fighting with several killed or wounded, is reported from Crefeld, where the Rhineland separatists failed in three attempts to capture the city hall, says the Dueseldorf correspondent of the Havas Agency.

Republican reinforcements are reported to be marching on Muenchen-Gladbach where the separatists were forced to evacuate Tuesday. The burgomaster of Coblenz is said to have been expelled by the French authorities for disregarding instructions given for the maintenance of order.

The correspondent also reports that at Elberfeld, outside the occupied zone, security police with drawn sabers were called on last night to disperse a big demonstration of unemployed workers. Police guards have been established around the town.

SENATE BACKS HOUSE ACTION BY 36 TO 1 VOTE

The executive with entering into a current agreement with Dr. A. E. Devanport, state health commissioner, place T. D. Edwards, the governor's personal chauffeur, on the payroll of the health department, at $200 a month, and that therefore "certain money were diverted from the statutory object and purpose which they were appropriated by law."

Lieutenant Governor Notified

The suspension resolution was introduced by Senator W. M. Gallagher of Muskogee. A committee was named to inform the governor and lieutenant governor of the action.

Lieut. Gov. Trapp was in Sapulpa, and was notified by telephone.

The committee delivered its message to the governor in his office. Immediately afterward the house transmitted article No. 3, charging the governor with preventing the meeting of a grand jury that was to inquire into his official acts, and the senate accepted it also.

The senate notified the house that it would convene at any time to receive additional impeachment articles that might be adopted later by the lower body and then adjourned. The house ended its session almost at the same time.

The text of the resolution suspending the governor follows:

The Removal Resolution

Whereas: The house of representatives of the provisions of the constitution, has filed with the senate articles of impeachment, and

Whereas: J. C. Walton, governor of Oklahoma, is charged with offenses constituting impeachment by the constitution; and

Whereas: The filing of the articles with the senate automatically suspends J. C. Walton, as governor and the office with its duties and compensations evolves upon the lieutenant governor;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the senate that the governor and lieutenant governor be advised as to their duties in this event and the secretary of the senate notify the governor and lieutenant governor of the proceedings thus had and to present to each of them a copy of this resolution.

The senate will resolve itself into a court of impeachment Wednesday morning, it was said.

Chief Justice J. T. Jones, of the State Supreme Court, will preside.

House Considers More Counts

Meanwhile the house is to continue consideration of the remaining twenty counts in the impeachment indictment.

Gov. Walton was among the last to leave the darkened state house Tuesday night. With a small group of friends he walked slowly down the stairway to the main floor.

"We still consider you our governor," one of the group said quietly. The governor made no answer.

AUTOMATIC CAMERA TO SNAP WINNERS IN OLYMPIC RACES

French Committee Experimenting With Device to Record Finishes

PARIS.—The French Olympic Committee is experimenting with a mechanical photographic device to record the finishes of the running events during the 1924 Olympic Games. Thus far the experiments have been successful, and there is every likelihood that a camera will be on hand at the finish line of all races to confirm or infirm the ruling of the judges.

The arrangement is practically the same as that in use for some years in Belgium to photograph the finishes of horse races, and which is likely to be adopted at French race tracks next season.

A camera is set just over the finish line about three feet from the track, and a string is stretched out across the track about the same height, and three feet from the actual finish. The string, upon being broken by the chest of the arriving winner, automatically releases the kodak, which snaps the runners just as they cross the line. The negatives are developed in two minutes.

The photograph also will record the time of the race to one-twentieth of a second. A huge clock nine feet in diameter will be installed right opposite the finish line inside the track in direct line with the camera. Through an electrical arrangement it will be released by the firing of the starting pistol and stopped by the breaking of the string at the finish line. The second hand, making a complete revolution splits the seconds in twenty fractions, while a smaller hand records the seconds and another the minutes.

POSTER ARTISTS TO MEET CINCINNATI

Many of the great poster artists and art teachers in the world are expected here next week to attend the 33rd annual convention of the Poster Advertising Association, according to officers of the association. Approximately 1,000 delegates will be present.

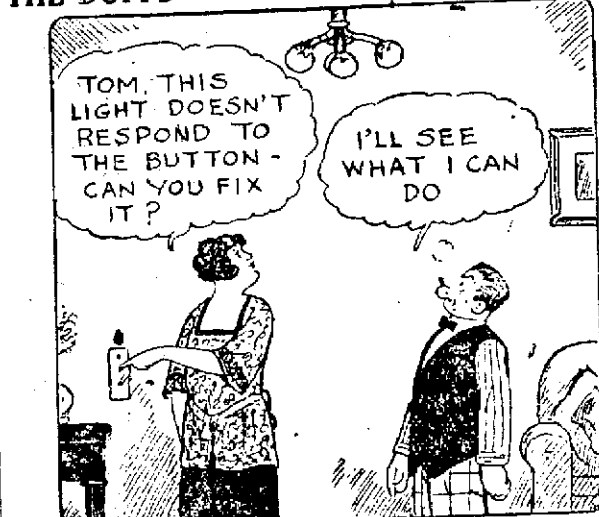

The general public has been invited to attend all sessions in order that it may learn of what the poster people are trying to accomplish in their crusade for clean outdoor advertising. The organization, according to the officers, does not go in for creation of bill boards but considers them an "abuse" of outdoor advertising.

CHINA SUPPLIES OUR HAIRNETS

The United States at the present time is making use of a great quantity of hairnets, which come from Northern China, because the China hair is best for the purpose, the supply greater and the cost of labor lower than any other place. It is a home industry, the nets being made by thousands of girls in widely scattered homes and rounded up in the cities through the assistance of one net manufacturer. The tying of about one hundred knots, for which the maker receives a sum equal to a cent. When the nets have been inspected, they are put up in packages of a gross and such packages weigh one ounce each. The package of the average Chinaman does not look like much as it hangs down his back but when it has been combed out it presents a beautiful appearance covering the back and shoulders completely.

When the boats come in the fish are dumped over upon a suitable table and the girls start in with a sharp knife they open and clean a fish with a few deft strokes and the fish

Toys From Tin Cans

American toy makers have purchased recently waste tin cans for use in their business. LIFE IS COMPARED WITH PUNCTUATION MARKS BY SPEAKER

Interesting Address Marks Meeting of Men's Club of Congregational Church

How life is a combination of three marks of punctuation was explained by Dr. A. M. Corwin of Chicago at the first meeting of the Men's Club of the Congregational church, held Wednesday evening in the church parlors.

The first of the punctuation marks, according to Dr. Corwin, is the question mark. It is also the first mark a person comes in contact with in the age of 16 years, and a child is to ask questions. He asks questions to ask questions. This is a very good practice, even for grown-up people. When a person stops asking questions, he stops his progress. At the age of 16 years, the child stops asking questions. Although he still asks questions, he does not ask as many as he used to. He knows it all. All the questions mark forms a very important part of our life.

The second punctuation mark is the exclamation mark. It is really the life of everything because although an organism may have good features, who are such men, it cannot succeed unless its power is concentrated in one place. For the third and last punctuation mark, Dr. Corwin selected the dash. A dash is a sort of link between the past and the future, he said. "It seems to be the tomorrow of us. These marks are the only ones we should think of. Periods, semicolons and commas are of no use at all. The dash is a man uses only when stopping. If a person has good health and healthy organs, no matter what his physical shortcomings are he can succeed."

Dr. Corwin cited as instances, a number of men in history, all the way from Caesar, with his characteristic first, to the late Theodore Roosevelt, who, although handicapped by a broken leg, at the age of 16 years, and remained his health. His story is known to everyone and his life contained no commas.

Evolution of Thumb

Dr. Corwin then gave a short sketch of the evolution of man's fifth finger. He showed the new frame of the thumb and how it would be along with the other fingers. The thumb is the first of the five fingers which Dr. Corwin told of in setting down the five fingers. Since the thumb is so important, he compared it with the thumb of a man. All people have a thumb. If a man is a Catholic he should be a good Catholic. If he is a Communist, he should be a good Communist. The index finger stands for belief in God and belief in man. The middle finger, represents the other four. If he is the best of him and the best of his work as possible in other words, compared with him.

Our next finger is the ring finger. Here is where the man's hand is considered. In considering the group, the ring is the one word which stands out. Dr. Corwin suggested that some men who don't find time to come home very often should be from some of the clubs because a man can not do too many things at a time and to them well.

Little Finger Last. "Last, and perhaps least, is the little finger, standing out from the rest. The little finger is the one word which stands out. Dr. Corwin suggested that some men who don't find time to come home very often should be from some of the clubs because a man can not do too many things at a time and to them well.

These five fingers make up a prescription which Dr. Corwin claims cannot be equalled.

Dr. Corwin, although a resident of Chicago, was born in Honduras. He is a member of the Chicago Kiwanis Club. He has been connected with the Rush Medical School and the College of Physicians and Surgeons and will be remembered by many as a speaker at the Kiwanis club here two years ago.

Election of officers was held to fill the offices of president and vice president, and a secretary pro tem until the return of the regular secretary. Mr. C. H. Schreiber was elected president, Mr. S. C. Gena vice president and Mr. G. F. Saxner secretary pro tem. Motion pictures on the program were given by the Y. W. C. A.

Great Lakes Shrinkage

Limits of Lake Erie and Michigan were once more extended than now. It is reasonably probable, say students of the subject, that some of the territory now drained by the Wabash and Illinois rivers was once covered by the waters of Lake Michigan.

CHICAGO, Ill.—A million Americans who wheeze and sneeze with asthma and hay fever are promised relief and permanent cures in a new method of treatment being considered.

at the convention of the American College of Surgeons.

Asthma and hay fever are due to local infection, the new method claims. Infection at the root of the teeth, in the nose or in an internal organ may be responsible for the sneezing and gasping that annually sends thousands to various climates seeking relief.

Some leading geologists predict that the American petroleum supply will be exhausted within fifteen years.

MADISON, Wis.—Carl Kimpel, a Milwaukee real estate broker, has had his license to practice his profession revoked by the Wisconsin real estate board, according to an announcement on Tuesday.

It is charged that Mr. Kimpel misrepresented in financial dealings with his mother, a resident of Menominee, Mich.

The state board has also issued orders denying licenses to M. P. Eagle, Spring Valley, Minn.; Oscar Gherhardt, Milwaukee; G. R. Goldsworthy, Vesper; John Kowalski, Neenah; C. H. McMahon, Greenwood; C. E. Tenney, Marshfield; George and McKee, La Porte, Ind.; George P. In the case of Harry Kerns, Eddie Rosner, and Josephine Bellanti, the applications for the licenses were denied because the applicants did not appear at the hearings on their applications, when requested to do so by the board.

BANDITRY REGULAR BUSINESS IN CHINA SAYS MAJOR PINGER

Kidnapping of Foreigners Only Way of Securing Money Says Former Captive

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif.—Banditry is a business in China and the kidnapping of foreigners is an outstanding feature of such business, according to Major R. W. Pinger, U. S. A., who was held captive by bandits in the Shantung province for thirty-seven days last spring, and who recently arrived here on the army transport Grant.

All of the lower classes in Shantung take part in the bandit raids occasionally, Major Pinger said. "Kidnaping of foreigners and holding them for ransom is the only way that some of the coolies have of obtaining money."

"Of the 2,500 who captured our party only a few hundred were professional robbers. The others were simply half-wild ex-farmers who had been driven to banditry because of the destruction of their farms."

CONFERENCES HELD BY RED CROSS TO DISCUSS ROLL CALL

Series of Meetings Planned for Balance of Month; Come to La Crosse Friday

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Arrangements have been completed for a series of Red Cross conferences in Wisconsin which will be held the balance of the month of October in various cities of the state.

The conferences will be held in the following places: Chippewa Falls, Oct. 24; La Crosse, Oct. 26; Marshfield, Oct. 27; Madison, Oct. 29; Milwaukee, Oct. 30, and Neenah, Oct. 31. Several meetings were held earlier this week, one at Rhinelander, Oct. 22, and another at Superior, Oct. 23.

All of the above meetings are for the purpose of reviewing Red Cross activities in the state and discussing the seventh annual roll call.

Conferences are informal in character. Red Cross members are asked to discuss their mutual problems in round table talks and advice of members is solicited in order to correlate the work of all units in counties and districts.

A. L. Schafer, representative of the central division of the American Red Cross (Chicago), and Miss Eleanor Myers, state field representative, are scheduled to be present at all meetings.

Wisconsin Red Cross workers have set a goal of 97,500 members for this year and are making every effort to obtain this enrollment.

"The strength of the organization lies in its membership," says Miss Myers. "Wisconsin is determined to maintain a number of members that shall be representative of the humanitarian spirit of the state."

MADISON GROOMING ITSELF TO RECEIVE OVER 10,000 ALUMNI STUDENTS SATURDAY ATTRACTION IS CLASH WITH MINNESOTA

MADISON, Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Madison is grooming itself to receive over 10,000 alumni and former students of the state university here Saturday for the annual school homecoming. The principal attraction of the day will be the clash between Wisconsin and Minnesota football teams on Camp Randall field.

Homecoming officials promise former Badger students entertainment for the entire time they are here. Festivities will begin Friday night with an enormous rally and pep-meeting to boost hopes for the Minnesota game. Reunions of various classes, banquets and the annual homecoming ball are included on the program for Saturday in addition to the game.

Reports to alumni headquarters indicate that former students are coming from every corner of the state and from surrounding states. Added to the crowd of the day will be hundreds of students and former students of the Minnesota school who are coming by special train to support the Gopher team. The crowd is expected to number around 40,000.

Meanwhile, Coach Jack Ryan is putting his football charges through day and night training in preparation for the game. Fear of overconfidence as a result of the unexpected 52 to 9 defeat of Indiana last week is giving the Badger mentor concern. "Forget Indiana, get ready for Minnesota," is the advice Ryan is giving his men.

The Badger team has been working on Minnesota plays brought back by scouts from the Gopher-North Dakota encounter last week. The entire team came out of the Indiana game with only slight injuries and prospects are that this will be no cause for defeat of the team next Saturday. There is expected to be little change in the Badger line-up against Minnesota from that used last Saturday, it is said.

OREGON MAN KILLS FAMILY, SETS HOME AFIRE AND SUICIDES

BEND, Ore.—Authorities said Wednesday that they were convinced that the tragedy on the farm near Deschutes Tuesday, revealed by the charred bodies of a woman, a man and four children, was caused by Eli Chasse, the farmer, who, according to this theory, killed his sister, Mrs. Anna Lanzer, her baby daughter, and his three children, whose ages were 5, 7, and 9, and then, after setting fire to the house, ended his own life with a revolver.

At the coroner's inquest testimony indicated that Chasse had been despondent because of financial difficulties and had threatened his family.

RECOUNTS HISTORY OF THE PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT IN STATE

No Longer Experiment in Government Zimmerman Tells Women Voters

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The history of the progressive movement in Wisconsin and the nation was outlined by Fred A. Zimmerman, secretary of state, speaking before the League of Women Voters here Tuesday night. Zimmerman declared that the progressive movement is no longer an experiment in government. He said that the progressive movement is a permanent feature of the political philosophy of the people.

Mr. Zimmerman stated that the political history of the state and nation during the latter part of the last century caused the progressive movement. The panic of 1893 was a money panic for which the Republican party and the Democratic parties were jointly responsible. The secretary of state reported that thousands of children went to bed and thousands died of hunger. The two old parties seemed to be doing nothing to ameliorate the condition of the masses. The progressive movement was due to the economic conditions of the time.

At the time of the panic of 1893, the progressive movement was a new thing. It was a movement to reform the government and to improve the conditions of the people. The progressive movement was a movement to reform the government and to improve the conditions of the people.

EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL WORKERS OF U. S. TO MEET AT MILWAUKEE

Convention Unique in Being First of Kind Ever Held in Country

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The first national conference of workers in hospitals conducted throughout the United States by the Episcopal Church will be held in Milwaukee, October 24-25, it was announced. The conference will be attended by representatives of practically all of the seventy hospitals controlled and operated by the church according to church officials. It will be presided over by Dr. William S. Keller, a prominent physician and churchman of Cincinnati.

During the conference a series of papers will be read by hospital directors and workers including Thomas Alfred Hyde, superintendent of Christ Hospital, Jersey City and chairman of the national committee on church hospitals. Doctor Hyde will speak on "Our Hopes and Plans for Church Hospitals."

Miss Edna Foley, superintendent of the visiting nurse association of Chicago and vice-president of the College Bureau of Occupations, will speak on "Nursing as a Churchwoman's Opportunity," with special reference to the need for nurses in the hospitals of the country. During the conference Miss Amy F. Clearer, chief of social service at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, will present a pictorial display of the various steps necessary in organizing hospital social service.

EXPEDITION SEEKS DATA ON ANCIENT EGYPTIAN RELIGION

CHICAGO, Ill.—An attempt to discover the ancient doctrines and beliefs of the four thousand year old religion of Egyptian Buddhism will be made by the Oriental Institute of the University of Chicago, in sending an expedition to Egypt, in November. The expedition will be led by Prof. James Henry Breasted, chairman of the department of Oriental Languages at the university and director of the Oriental Institute. Prof. Breasted was present when the tomb of King Tutankhamen was opened last spring.

It is planned to make hand copies of the Egyptian hieroglyphics found inscribed on the inner surfaces of the pyramids and the old feudal coffins. These texts contain the religious beliefs prevalent in Egypt at about B. C., according to Prof. Breasted.

Harnessing Dog a Crime
Though dogs are used for drawing sled vehicles in many parts of the country, it is an offense in England, Scotland, Ireland, and a summons was heard against an elderly man who had harnessed a dog to a four-wheeled carriage. A fine of five shillings was imposed.

MOVIES

CASINO TODAY

There are few if any picture fans who did not see the epoch-making production of Rex Beach's novel of adventure in Alaska, "The Spoilers," made ten years ago by William Selig. It is safe to say that everyone who saw that picture will want to see Jesse D. Hampton's new screen version of it and that everyone who did not see the first picturization will make certain of seeing the new one. It will be seen at the Casino theater today.

It pictures vividly the adventures, hardships, the rampant greed and the devotion which were so forcibly brought out among the people taking part in the great Klondike gold rush. It is filled to the brim with such rapid action, big dramatic moments and strenuous conflicts as screen patrons delight in.

"MAN FROM DOWNING STREET" Jewels valued at one-half million are worn by members of the Earle Williams company in "The Man From Downing Street," which will be shown at the Riviera Theater, tonight and Thursday. In this production the star appears as a rajah and wears many jewels such as sunbursts, rings, ropes of pearls, diamond collars and other decorations of a native prince of India. Boris Karloff, as Mahamajah Jehan, also wears a great number of expensive jewels.

The story of "The Man From Downing Street" is a combination of a thrilling detective story, a political intrigue and an intense love affair. The ending comes as a surprise.

"DULCY" "Dumb-bell" has gone into the discard in Hollywood. It's "dulcy" now when somebody pulls a "bawler," or in better parlance, a faux pas. "Dulcy" was derived from Constance Talmadge's new film. It is the role of a well-meaning, meddling wife, Dulcinea Smith, who is always entangling her husband in embarrassments by her lack of tact.

"Dulcy" will be shown at the Rivoli Theater today and rest of the week.

STRAND TODAY

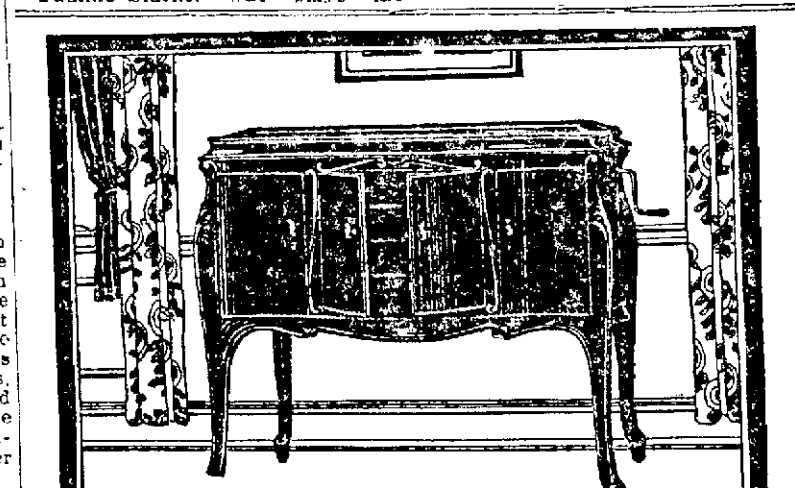

The deck scenes for "Cappy Ricks," Thomas Meighan's Paramount picture which comes to the Strand Theater today were filmed on the State pier in South Boston where ex-president Woodrow Wilson landed on his return from France after his first trip to Europe. For more than a week the schooner "Retriever," which is used in this picture, was anchored at the exact spot where Mr. Wilson made his landing. Many scenes showing Thomas Meighan as "Cappy Ricks," Charles Abbe as "Matt Pansley," and Agnes Ayres in the role of "Florrie Ricks" were taken at the pier.

"KINGDOM WITHIN" Pauline Starke, who plays the leading feminine role in "The Kingdom Within" which comes to the Majestic Theater on Thursday is an actress of considerable ability. Unlike many players who have come direct from the speaking stage, Miss Starke has always been identified with motion pictures. Miss Starke's portrayal of Emily Preston is one which shows she has a tremendous gift for playing on the heart-strings. Emily has been ostracized by the village folk on account of her brother who has been sent to jail for robbery.

FIRST HAND STORY OF RUSSIA WILL BE RELATED HERE

Madame Pierre Ponafidine Will Open Normal Lecture Course
Here November 5

In the opening number of the Normal lecture course on Monday, Nov. 5, the patrons will receive a first-hand account of the more or less mysterious happenings in Russia during and since the revolution of 1917, given by an eye-witness, Madame Pierre Ponafidine. A brief account of her life indicates the remarkable nature of her experiences.

Madame Ponafidine, born of American missionary parents in Persia, married to a Russian diplomat, with whom she lived for many years in various countries in Asia and Europe, settling on his estate between Petrograd and Moscow in 1903 and living there among the peasants until she escaped illegally with two of her three sons in February, 1922, brings to the American platform a most interesting story of what actually happened in the Sovietizing of her husband's model estate.

Her story of her party's escape across the river, stepping from cake to cake of ice, with the Bolshevik searchlights on all sides playing upon them, has been described by those who have heard her as "thrilling."

Her story is so interesting to American audiences that in Buffalo, where she has been stopping, she has spoken a dozen times, and the historical society in that city has invited her to speak again next winter.

When she arrived in America in February last, she learned for the first time of the death of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. Not only was information kept from them in Russia, but to show how the government-controlled press misinformed the public, she read about the strikes of the railroads in America—90 per cent of the railroads being unable to operate on account of the Bolshevik workmen refusing to work. Her son said, "Mother, what is the use of trying to get to America? According to the papers we will get there when the worst of the bloody revolution is on, and as long as we have gone through the worst here we had better stay."

Another Step

Another step forward—The Journal's New Morning Edition—has been presented to the people of Wisconsin. For the discriminating morning reader in Wisconsin, there is only one newspaper—the New Morning Edition of The Milwaukee Journal.—Adv.

NON-SCOUTS HAVE FEED AT CHURCH GIVEN BY SCOUTS

The report of the first fellowship feed by troops for non-scouts was handed in Tuesday morning. Troop No. 6 of St. John's Reform church, under the leadership of Irwin Sheldon, assisted by the acting assistant scoutmaster, Forrest Herbert, conducted a "hot dog" feed for the non-scouts of their church. The purpose of this feed was to interest boys in scout work, and it was reported a success in every way.

The program consisted of a short talk on scouting by Mr. Sheldon, games, in which every boy took part, lead by Mr. Herbert, and last, but not least to the new boys was the feed, cooked in real scout fashion by Cooks Ronald Platz and Lester Kobitz. The menu was "hot dog" sandwiches, cookies and cocoa.

A contest was staged, when the last four boys to finish eating were informed that the last boy to finish would be given a prize. This prize was the special privilege of doing K. P. work, that is washing and drying the dishes used in connection with the feed.

The boys who made this feed a success were: Raymond Bender, Ralph Wachs, Julius Platz, Russell Schmidt, Albert Ruoff, George Schmidt, Virgil Bogert, Ralph Morton, Ronald Platz and Lester Kobitz.

POPULATION OF 20,000,000 PREDICTED FOR NEW YORK

NEW YORK.—(New York Times.)—The prediction that New York city will have a population of 20,000,000 in the year 2,000 is made by Prof. Raymond Pearl and Prof. Lowell J. Reed of the School of Hygiene and Public Health of Johns Hopkins university, in a survey for the committee on the plan of New York and its environs, made public on Sunday. The population analysis covered a metropolitan district of 5,500 square miles, embracing New York, New Jersey and Connecticut and now having a population of 9,000,000.

SANE; MUST FACE TRIAL

Diogenes was banished from his country for eating false money.

PLOT TO DESTROY TOWN SEEN IN THREE BLAZES

QUITMAN, Ga.—Fire that broke out in three different parts of Quitman at 1:40 o'clock Sunday morning and believed to have been a plot to destroy this city, caused more than $100,000 loss.

Fire companies that made a fast run from Valdosta, twenty miles away, and heroic work on the part of local fire fighters saved the city.

Robberies that were reported during the afternoon and night from all parts of the city, appear to confirm the theory here that robbers caused the fires.

Several attempts were made to open safes in offices and business buildings and several small houses were destroyed by the fire.

Look in Ten Days

See the whiter teeth appear when you combat the film

Your druggist this week has 10-Day Tubes for a new way of teeth cleaning. Millions now employ it. You see its results in prettier teeth wherever you look today.

Now we urge you to learn what it means to you and yours. The test is delightful, the results are amazing. Go find them out.

The fight on film

Dental science has in late years started a fight on film. Film is that vicious coat you feel. Under old brushing methods, much of it clings and stays. Soon it becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. That is why teeth lose luster.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Pewer escaped tooth troubles, fewer had glistening teeth, under old-time brushing methods.

Now research has discovered two effective film combatants. One disintegrates the film at all stages of formation. One removes it without harmful scouring. Able authorities proved these methods by many careful tests. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent.

Careful people of some 50 nations have now come to employ it, largely by dental advice.

Night-and-day aids

Pepsodent also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—the neutralizer of mouth acids. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva—put there to digest starch deposits.

Those factors act as tooth-protecting agents. Every use of Pepsodent gives them manifold effect.

Protect the Enamel

Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel. Never use a film combatant which contains harsh grit.

The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific tooth paste based on modern research. Now advised by leading dentists the world over.

New beauty comes

Pepsodent brings prettier teeth. That is why millions of women employ it. But those whiter teeth mean cleaner, safer teeth, and everyone should have them.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

One week will bring a revelation. It may bring lifetime benefits, both to you and yours. Cut out coupon now.

SHARPER TUNING IS HELD POSSIBLE BY SHORT ANTENNA

Radio Amateur Makes Appeal for Span of Less than 100 Feet

CHICAGO, Ill.—A short antenna has the advantage over a long antenna inasmuch as the shorter antenna permits sharper tuning, i. e., the short antenna permits the operator to select the desired station more readily than a long one, according to Beverly R. Lindley, member of the A. R. R. in an article on tuning for amateur radio operators. For this reason, owners of short antennas of an antenna tuner, in order to obtain a long antenna, for the reception of broadcast stations operating below 360 meters a shorter antenna than was formerly used is necessary. It would be a very good idea to keep the total length of the antenna, this includes lead-in and ground lead, under 100 feet so that amateur signals from American Radio Relay League stations may be received as well as amateur signals. For best results the antenna should not exceed 120 feet for broadcast reception, or 80 feet for amateur reception.

Effective Height Counts
Apparently the height of the aerial makes little difference to most radio fans. A very high one will be able to pick up more radio frequency energy than a low one, however, the high aerial, besides being able to pick up more energy, will also pick up more interference, which may seriously interfere with reception, so that two high antennas are to be avoided. It is the effective height of the antenna that counts, not always the height above ground, but so far above a grounded lead-in wire that a grounded lead-in wire is to be avoided.

Choose Insulators With Care
The antenna wires should be kept as far away from the aerial supports as possible. The antenna insulators should be of good grade and should be so designed that they do not absorb water and have low capacity between their terminals. Glazed porcelain insulators are the best with glass insulators second. Avoid purchasing the porous or unglazed porcelain, or cheap imitation rubber, insulators. Keep the antenna insulators clean and preferably replace them every year. They don't work as well when dirt gets on top of them. The insulators should be replaced with better than short thick ones, as the capacity is much lower. See that the lead-in enters the house through a good porcelain tube and that it does not touch the house other than at insulated points.

Preventing Corrosion
The antenna should be a size consistent with the area and should be treated with care. Flat copper ribbon, copper stranded cable and large size wire wires are all good. Don't use iron wire that has a trace of copper plating on it. Copper plated iron wire is not much better in value of the fact that copper wire, when it would be added to the number 12 or 14 copper wire. Throughout the entire antenna system, insulation on the antenna wires is essential, as much as it prevents corrosion to the wires, and does not detract from the general efficiency of the antenna.

Be sure to replace all things in the antenna. A well designed antenna and ground system will duplicate materially the results of a good antenna.

SULPHUR CLEARS ROUGH, RED SKIN

Face, Neck and Arms Easily Made Smooth, Says Specialist.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentha-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation begins at once to soothe the irritated skin and heal eruptions such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the torment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from embarrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentha-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

UNDER THE CAPITOL DOME

Odds and Ends of State Affairs by William J. Anderson

MADISON, Wis.—Much controversy has arisen over the administration of one of the new tax laws enacted by the legislature of 1923. Chapter 310 (formerly 272 S.) provides that interest at the rate of 10 per cent shall be required on all back income taxes, regardless of what caused the delay, with the question of "willful intent" in with-holding the tax or trying to evade it, does not enter. Even if the tax is past due owing to a clerical error, still the 10 per cent penalty must be paid.

The fact that the law worked in justice to a number of cases led to an investigation of the history of its enactment. The result of that investigation is the discovery that there was a blunder made in the passage of the law that may void it.

The measure which originated with the tax commission, was introduced in the senate by the committee on corporations on March 20. After being favorably recommended by the committee, it was read a second time, and ordered engrossed and to be read a third time. It finally passed the senate by a unanimous vote of those present and was sent to the assembly. That house concurred in it by a vote of 42 yeas and 7 nays. On coming back to the senate, it was enrolled and sent to the governor. Up to this time the bill took the regular course.

Then a resolution passed by both houses recalling the bill from the governor for the purpose of amending it. It came back to the senate and was placed on the calendar for June 6. On June 1 it was taken from the June 6 calendar, the vote by which it passed was reconsidered, amendment by Senator Severson was adopted, and then the bill as amended was passed by the senate, but without an aye and no vote as required. It went over to the assembly, was duly passed in its amended condition, came back to the senate, and was sent to the governor's room. Evidently recalling that the senate took no aye and no vote in passing the measure after amendment, and before it went to the assembly the second time, Senator Severson had it recalled and had an aye and no vote of the senate taken.

The lawyers who contend that the law is void say that the senate after amending the bill, and not having taken an aye and no vote in passing as amended, sent a bill to the assembly which in fact had not passed the senate, that no action of the assembly nor of the senate taken after that could remedy the defect.

The tax commission asked the attorney general's opinion as to the validity of the bill, but the attorney general refused to give an opinion on the question of validity.

The secretary of state objects to the plan of the governor for remitting, so-called, a million and a half of taxes, and proposes instead that the state's loan of two million and a half of interest be paid annually, 7 per cent, by the amount it is proposed to lessen the levy. The secretary, in other words, is in favor of handling the state's finances on a business basis rather than on a political basis. It was back in Governor Risk's time that the use of the state treasury surplus to diminish the tax levy was first used as a political argument. It has lost its effect as a booster for the current administration. The truth is that the effect of the remitting is always uncertain. There is no guarantee in the situation that next year the tax levy may not have to be increased in a sum equal or nearly so, to that remitted, in order to remedy an error in calculation.

Yes!—scrub, wash dishes three times daily, do the family washing if you will, yet have charming hands! It's a fairy story come true.

A new idea

As world's beauty experts we've developed a household soap that does not injure the most charming hands.

3 housewives in 4, we learned, had ugly red hands because of harsh laundry soaps.

Most contain 25% to 40% water glass—a skin wrecker. A chemical test of 28 popular brands of household soaps showed 27 strongly adulterated!

So when you see a woman with ugly hands, you now know the reason.

DAIRY PRODUCTS
MEETING ON AT
STEVENS POINT

Improvement in Quality and Quantity Stressed by Speakers at Convention

STEVENS POINT, Wis.—Improvement in quality and quantity of Wisconsin Dairy Products was the keynote advanced in lectures and speeches Wednesday before the tenth annual convention of the Central Wisconsin Cheesemakers, Buttermakers and Dairymen's Advancement Association, in session here.

Tons of cheese and butter and earloads of butter and cheese making equipment are on display here as the result of efforts of the exposition management to make this show the best in the history of the association. No pains have been spared to make this exposition and convention complete in all departments; much work has been done toward promoting the education side of the event. A large number of experts in dairying from the University of Wisconsin, agricultural colleges, are assisting authorities in the industry in other parts of the state in arranging a series of talks that will cover both days of the exposition.

Awards of more than $1,000 in addition to specials, for dairy products marked the opening day.

Much of the work promoting the event was done by a woman, Linda C. Bruhn, Auburndale, secretary of the organization.

Among features of the exposition will be an inspirational lecture by Dr. W. T. Wewers, Milwaukee, on "The Master Key."

NORA BAYES GETS
LIFELONG AMBITION

Although the past few years have brought glowing fame to Nora Bayes, American singing comedienne, it has long been her ambition to devote an entire evening to a merry medley of song and comedy. In no musical comedy in which Miss Bayes has starred has she ever been able to satisfy the demands of her public for her own individual songs and comedy bits; if she did respond to the endless entreaties, there would be no performance by the rest of the cast. So now, in order to please her multitudinous admirers, Miss Bayes has signed contracts for a transcontinental tour which will take her from New York to San Francisco, and will devote one night to each city, giving an entire evening made up of her greatest song hits. Her supporting company is said to be one of the finest she has ever had in individual entertainment. Her appearance here is scheduled for Oct. 31st at the La Crosse theater.

HUGE DAM PLANNED FOR KICKAPOO RIVER STARTS AT WAUZKA

Permission is Sought from State to Form Lake to Obtain Water Power

WOULD SUPPLY TOWNS IN THE KICKAPOO VALLEY WITH POWER

Summer Resort on Hill-bordered Lake 10 Miles Long Proposed

A new hill-bordered lake, similar to Lake Wisconsin, equaling it in size and surpassing it in beauty, will be formed if the state railroad commission gives a newly formed corporation permission to dam the Kickapoo near Wauzeka, Crawford county, about 50 miles from La Crosse.

Hearing on the application of the Kickapoo River Power company will be held by the commission at Wauzeka Friday, Oct. 28.

The project, conceived primarily as a summer resort venture, is expected to cost at least $1,000,000 in its development and is intended also to make up a deficiency in power for several towns in the Kickapoo river valley.

Would Develop 1,700 Horsepower

E. E. Dillon, Madison consulting engineer, is one of the incorporators of the new company, in association with H. L. Seely, secretary of the La Farge Electric company and E. F. Marshall, also of La Farge. Shortly after its incorporation, the concern filed application to build a hydro-electric power dam, 30 feet high, to develop 1,700 horsepower and provide a transmission line and substations.

The proposed plant will be as large as those at Gays Mills, Soldiers Grove, Readstown, Viola and La Farge, combined, and the purpose of the new company is to connect all of these power lines. The plants already are overhauled and three have been forced to install auxiliary steam engines to supply their patrons.

The dam, which will back up the Kickapoo river for ten miles, from Wauzeka past Steuben to Barnum, will involve removal of about eight miles of railway. The tracks of a C. M. & St. P. branch line run up the valley along the Kickapoo banks from Wauzeka to La Farge and erection of the dam will necessitate their removal eastward above the flood-water mark.

Lake Ten Miles Long

The backwater formed, Mr. Dillon pointed out, will be unique among Wisconsin's lakes and will form the only lake in that part of the state. With a total length of ten miles, it will have a maximum width of nearly one mile. Nestling among hills hundreds of feet high in places, it will be more like a mountain lake than any other in the state with the exception of Devil's lake, the formations about which are somewhat similar.

Property owners along the valley whose land will be affected by the proposed development have been notified of Friday's hearing. Many of them already have expressed a favorable attitude, Mr. Dillon declared. While there is some good land along the valley in this region, its crops have been destroyed time after time by flood waters. Much of the area which will be submerged also is too marshy to provide good pasturage.

The river, fed by springs, is now about the size of the La Crosse river at that point. With erection of the dam, it is pointed out, the spring floods will be regulated, as the areas usually affected will be permanently submerged.

Make Summer Resort Too

The timbered shores of the proposed lake will add to its beauty, Mr. Dillon said, but in making it a summer resort center the company proposes to avoid the mistake made at Lake Wisconsin, which is filled with dead tree stumps and snags. The timber on the areas to be flooded will be cut off before the dam is built, he declared. In addition to moving the railway, the company also proposes to build highways on both sides of the lake to provide access to cottage sites, Mr. Dillon asserted.

The Kickapoo river, which flows into the Wisconsin a short distance below Wauzeka, is the last of the large tributaries to that stream which has not been developed, said Mr. Dillon. Wauzeka is about 20 miles north-east of Prairie du Chien, on Highway 60.
